Saddlebred Center

Freedom Hall Main Concourse, West of Ramp to Arena

Saddlebred Center is the hub for all things association with the American Saddlebred Horse Association and American Saddlebred Registry during the Kentucky State Fair World's Championship Horse Show. Staffers are available to assist members, and a computer is available for members to check e-mail and the Association's website. Saddlebred Center is located on the concourse, across from the elevator in the southwest corner of Freedom Hall. It's just off the crossing between the paddock and the show ring where horses enter.

Press releases to your hometown newspaper

Help promote the breed with a press release to the newspaper in your community. World's Championship Horse Show Participants interested in having their hometown newspaper informed of their accomplishments during the week should stop by Saddlebred Center. Forms are available so you can provide the necessary information to enable the Association to send a news release to your local newspapers.

THE CHEROKEE TRIANGLE ASSOCIATION UNVEILS WINNING PAINTING IN THE CASTLEMAN STATUE ART COMPETITION

ASHA President Tandy Patrick next to the General Castleman Statue

ASHA Executive Director Karen Winn and Tandy Patrick with the winning artwork.

Sales from prints of the winning artwork will benefit the Castleman Statue Renovation Project. General Castleman is remembered as the founder of the American Saddlebred Horse Association. The equestrian statue of the General, mounted on his favorite American Saddlebred, Carolina, sits at the junction of Cherokee Parkway and Cherokee Road in Louisville.
