Claude and Alice Shiflet

They're just good people! That's how most would characterize Asheboro, North Carolina's Claude and Alice Shiflet, our featured members of the day. The son of a Virginia sheep and cattle farmer who also dealt horses to the Mennonites, Claude and his brother Riley rode the mules, horses and ponies that were part of the family farm. They bred a couple of mares to a local doctor's American Saddlebred stallion, Playmor King. One of the foals, a gray filly, turned out to be the first horse Claude gaited.

His love of horses was matched only by his love of Alice Campbell. The two were married December 6, 1952 and today are still a shining example of how to do it the right way. Family and faith have been their staple.

Before settling in Asheboro, the Shiflet family traveled to West Virginia, back to Virginia, North Carolina and then to Ohio to work for A.E. Knowlton and the famed Emerald View Farm where Claude had his first World's Champion, the three-year-old five-gaited mare Tinsel Wings. There was a short stint with Jim B. Robertson and George Gwinn in Kentucky before the master horseman Earl Teater called on Claude to join his Dodge Stables staff. It was at Dodge Stables where Shane, the last of four boys was born. Harrison, Doug, and Mark preceded him.

After being in Kentucky about three years the Shiflets heard of a barn available in North Carolina, a barn the late Ray Harney had worked out of and sold Shiflet a stallion named Warlord. They moved to Asheboro and started from scratch, making Shiflet Stables into a powerhouse, not only in the Carolinas, but nationally as well. There were many top horses made, bought and sold, among them ^{CH}Commander's Countess, Black Oman, Society Time, Secret Flight, Starcade, Flirtatious, Quaint Design, Oman's Flight, ^{CH}Knightwatch N.M., ^{CH}Stanly County Fox, Attache's

Touched By An Angel, Midnight Senor, and Elegant Dreamcatcher to name a few.

Just like his father, Claude has always kept a few broodmares and raised foals. However, his greatest impact on the horse industry might be as a sire himself. Son Harrison and his wife Beverly run the Harrison Shiflet Stables, along with their children Taylor and Grant. Their other son Matthew, along with his wife Whitney, have been on their own for a while and making quite a name for themselves. They just had a son, Clayton.

Two of Claude and Alice's sons - Doug and Shane - turned into professional horse photographers. We've seen Doug's work here at the World's Championship Horse Show for decades. Shane has top shows in three different breeds. His wife Suzy is a horse trainer and moved from New England to be a part of the family tradition in Asheboro. Brother Mark, while not in the horse business, married the former Jill Sando of ^{CH}Preferred Prince and ^{CH}Gypsy Supreme Fame.

Claude and Alice Shiflet have been mentors to many in and out of the show horse business and have been leaders in different organizations. We are pleased to honor them as our Members Of The Day.
