Carl T. Fischer

The American Saddlebred Horse Association is pleased to recognize Prospect, Kentucky's Carl T. Fischer as its first Member Of The Day here at the World's Championship Horse Show. His Meadowlake Farm has long been synonymous for breeding, developing, showing, and selling several industry greats. An avid exhibitor in his early years, one of Carl's favorite horses was CHSam McGee, winner of the Amateur Three-Gaited World's Champion class in both 1953 and '54. Over the years Carl has been association with trainers such as Garland and Frank Bradshaw, Frank McConnell, Jim Koller, Bob Whitney and Ellis Waggoner and for the past 18 years, Peter Palmer.

Carl's passion for the American Saddlebred has been evident through his breeding program, which has spanned some 65 years. Some of Meadowlake's more recent products include the top fine harness performer and breeding stallion <sup>CH</sup>The King Of Highpoint and Broodmare Hall of Fame member Poor Ruby Reddress who was the dam of World's Grand Champion Gimcrack and World's Champion Trink To Me Only.

World's Champion <sup>CH</sup>Family Jewels was also a Meadowlake graduate, siring the homebred World's Grand Champion

His service to the industry has included manager of the New Market Sale and Rock Creek Horse Show as well as being a member of the ASHA Breeder's Committee where he was instrumental in establishing the Broodmare Hall of Fame. A member of the World's Championship Horse Show Hall of Fame, Carl has also served on the Kentucky State Fair Advisory Board and Hall of Fame Committee as well as the ASHA Board Of Directors.

Susan Worzalla

Cedarburg, WI, is home to our Monday ASHA Member of the Day. For thirty-some years our honoree has dedicated her life to raising a family and raising American Saddlebreds. For many years Susan Worzalla could be seen nine months pregnant with another infant strapped to her and a few others in tow while doing chores in the barn. Although she has 10 children, that doesn't slow her down from raising, training and showing horses. In addition to her working with her own family's horses, Sue also spent years trading out work for lessons and training for her children.

"She's a great broodmare, an incredibly hard worker and great with in hand babies," chuckled Scott Matton who has been close to the family and been the one trading out those services many times. In fact, just this past year Matton and the Knollwood Farm staff directed her son Matthew Worzalla to the World's Champion Walk and Trot Saddle Seat Equitation 10-Year-Old title.

Sue and her family raise four or five foals a year, support the local and national futurities, and go to horse shows both big and small. Sue and daughter Sarah Luft have shown many of those homegrown stars as well as those purchased as youngsters. Some of those champions include Unspoken

Intentions, Tura Lura Lura, Scandalist, Al Capone, Deep Impact, Bada Bling, The Bourne Supremacy, John Dillenger, Gigabite, Double Dipper, Winsdown Royal Albert, and the 2012 World's Champion ASR Amateur Weanling Futurity winner Once And For All.

How does a woman with 10 children and several horses to raise find time for anything else? Well, Sue also makes time to give back to the industry she loves. One of her main volunteer projects is as secretary of the Wisconsin Futurity, a job she has done for nearly 10 years.
