Rick Daigle

We go about as far north up the Eastern coast as one can go and still be in the USA to find Wednesday's Member Of The Day. Ft. Kent, Maine is home to Rick Daigle, an American Saddlebred, owner, breeder and exhibitor since November 15, 1991, that's the day the papers to the breeding stallion Buck's Co-Star went into his name. The now deceased son of Buck And Wing and Starheart's Daughter sired several top horses over his career, which included ownership by Peter Fenton and then Frank Cook. One of Buck's Co-Star's best is this year's Lexington Junior League Five-Gaited Grand Champion Roselane's Angelo.

Rick came to the American Saddlebred via the Arabian and National Show Horse. "I was breeding some National Show Horses and we were trying to make them look like Saddlebreds so I finally said, 'why don't we just get Saddlebreds?'" His trainer was very happy about that.

One of his first show horses was a five-gaited mare named Risque. Sally Lindabury was working her for Rick and asked him to let her take the mare to Madison Square Garden and the National Horse Show. "We didn't win. There was some horse named Sky Watch," he chuckled. "After seeing him I thought, 'if this is what the Saddlebreds are about, I'm all in.'"

Since that time Rick has owned approximately 30 horses, raising a foal or two along the way. In response to the UPHA and ASHA's cry for more people to get involved with raising foals, he bred a few more last year.

In the early days his Valley Show Horse string under the direction of Jannie Giles featured Big Dreams, Reverie's Sable, He's Too Much, Downtown Man, My Hatteras, and The Big Dance. More recently with the Garone's Fairfield South, Rick has shown Reserve World's Champion I'm Sky High, Liquid Thunder, Tom Lewis, and Reserve World's Champion My Best Asset. Currently he shows Battle's Radar and Soquili's Mystique, while Gary Garone campaigns Soquili's Morning Star.

Rick has been a longtime supporter of UPHA Chapter 14 and its endeavors and when asked what he liked most about showing American Saddlebreds he responded, "A horse that racks! A game horse, I don't like a horse I have to push."

And when it comes to outside of the show ring? "I'm in a high stress business. I love coming home and going to the barn with my two retired geldings (I'm Sky High and The Big Dance). They are 20 and 17 and both look like they could go back in the ring. I love my time with them."

#WisdomWednesday

Sponsored by Hagyard Pharmacy

This popular Tennessean was full of wisdom, one of his best lines was, "Sit tight...ride light... whip right because tonight just might be the night!" The first person to correctly identify the pair at the ASHA booth in the North Wing will win a custom pair of Rider Up Equestrian Wear Jods, the 2013 Year in Review, and a Dinsmore saddle pad!
