Barbara Woods

Land O'Lakes, Florida is home to today's ASHA Member of the Day. Our honoree has been showing at the World's Championship Horse Show for 40 years and she has also enjoyed watching her daughters Linda and Beth participate. Her granddaughter Emily is also now having world's champion success in the show ring as a fifth generation American Saddlebred exhibitor.

Family involvement with horses is something that has been a blessing for our honoree and her family as they travel the country to participate. Her last personal show ring appearance was two years ago and now she is a great cheerleader for her granddaughter and other exhibitors at Judd Stables. When she was actively participating she had such recent stars as CH Discover, Rondo and CH Sweet Virginia with whom she won an Adult Show Pleasure World's Championship with in 2009. Following her show career, Sweet Virginia became a broodmare and has given the family Nuttin Sweeter, now a champion with granddaughter Emily.

As any grandmother would do, she passes on wisdom to Emily before her classes and that is to "ride hard and have a good time. Winning is wonderful but the important thing is to enjoy the ride."

For her dedication to the sport of showing American Saddlebreds with her family, our ASHA Member Of The Day is Barbara Woods.
