ASHA Member of the Day

Don and Brooke Deardorff

We look to the west coast for our next ASHA Member Of The Day. Molalla, Oregon is a 5,800 person town and in the '50s and '60s was home to the largest American Saddlebred breeding operation west of the Mississippi, Doubletrees Farm. This operation was started by our honoree's father who owned a lot of timberland and used horses of all kind but gravitated to the American Saddlebred. Our member of the day also took a liking to the Saddlebreds as a kid and did all he could to become a horseman. He married a horse crazy girl and converted her to Saddlebreds as well. Years later they would have a daughter, Allison, and she too would become a part of the family operation.

This family has been breeding and training horses for decades with his father being a founding member of the Northwest Saddlebred Association in the '60s. Our honoree's first big time gaited horse was a mare named Starheart's Ballerina that he won with at the Cow Palace when it was a major horse show. He eventually sold her to Dale Milligan where she went on to be a World's Champion.

The stallion Doubletrees General D put the breeding operation on the map siring the popular Junior Exhibitor Five-Gaited World's Champion Doubletrees Steel The Show. The most recent stallion to produce stars for this family is the ^{CH} Foxfire's Prophet son Avant. They continue to be great supporters of the Northwest Saddlebred Horse Association Futurity showing countless babies, several of them going on to be successful performance horses for the families showing under their guidance.

Barbara Woods

Land O'Lakes, Florida is home to today's ASHA Member of the Day. Our honoree has been showing at the World's Championship Horse Show for 40 years and she has also enjoyed watching her daughters Linda and Beth participate. Her granddaughter Emily is also now having world's champion success in the show ring as a fifth generation American Saddlebred exhibitor.

Family involvement with horses is something that has been a blessing for our honoree and her family as they travel the country to participate. Her last personal show ring appearance was two years ago and now she is a great cheerleader for her granddaughter and other exhibitors at Judd Stables. When she was actively participating she had such recent stars as ^{CH}Discover, Rondo and ^{CH}Sweet Virginia with whom she won an Adult Show Pleasure World's Championship with in 2009. Following her show career, Sweet Virginia became a broodmare and has given the family Nuttin Sweeter, now a champion with granddaughter Emily.

As any grandmother would do, she passes on wisdom to Emily before her classes and that is to "ride hard and have a good time. Winning is wonderful but the important thing is to enjoy the ride."
