Carolyn Moore Miller

A resident of Fairview Heights, Illinois, our ASHA Member Of The Day was born with the love of horses. Her grandfather was a trick rider and her mother claims our honoree taught herself to read with horse show programs. Her introduction to the show ring began at age 5 aboard a Western pleasure pony. For her 7th birthday she received a Hackney three-gaited pony and soon American Saddlebreds became a way of life for the young lady and her family.

She graduated to gaited horses, her first being a mare named Reata's Pampered Lady. That mare also started a trend that continues today. "I sell the geldings and keep my show mares to breed," stated our honoree. When bred to the Hulse family's prolific sire Chamwpagne Fizz, Reata's Pampered Lady produced four show horses, among them the top mare Danish Wine. When Danish Wine's show career was over she was bred to Radiant Sultan and produced CH High Heat who has won so many titles for so many different people.

"One of my best moments was showing Danish Wine here, she was the coolest," said our honoree. And then to watch her son High Heat have so much success for others has been very satisfying."

She has also had her share of top gaited geldings, one being^{CH} The Decisive Moment who was just magic to show according to our Member Of The Day. This season Robert Gardiner has campaigned I'm A Blues Man, another top horse she raised out of her former gaited mare Callaway's Potpourri. He was just reserve here on Wednesday night in the Five-Gaited Gelding Stake for new owner Lisa Holt.

She is very thankful to Judy Werner for taking such great care of her mares and foals for all these years and encourages American Saddlebred enthusiasts to become breeders for the personal relationships you build with your animals and the joy of watching them develop.
