

AMERICAN SADDLEBRED HORSE ASSOCIATION

ASHA MARPLE LESSON PAYBACK PROGRAM

The ASHA Marple Lesson Payback Program is designed to increase the number of Saddlebred Lesson Programs and Riding Instructors and the use of American Saddlebreds in every discipline in underserved areas of the United States and the knowledge of Saddle Seat as a whole as well as promoting the love of the American Saddlebred.

An applicant for this program should be a riding instructor with a background and strong commitment to the American Saddlebred. The individual must have knowledge of what it takes to run their own business and the willingness to do so. An instructor should be safety-minded and hard working. This person should be willing to participate in activities connected to the industry. Our applicants need to have a strong moral and ethical attitude that will attract new clients. This individual should be positive, personable, knowledgeable, fun, organized, thrifty, responsible, careful, particular, flexible, diplomatic, patient, understanding, willing, demanding, and creative. Please see ASHA Marple Lesson Payback Program information for requirements to submit with this application.
