Bill Marple

A son of former Saddlebred trainer Earl Marple, today's honoree could ride before he could walk. Growing up on the family's Indiana farm, he learned to ride ponies and anything else his father put him on. He got his first show horse at the age of 10 and started out showing equitation and then junior exhibitor three-gaited. It wasn't long before he was breaking colts for his dad.

In the '60s and '70s it was a wonderful time to grow up with American Saddlebreds on the famed "Leaky Roof Circuit." After graduating from law school at Indiana University, our Member Of The Day eventually found his way to Texas and met his bride Sandy, who also happened to love horses.

While getting his professional career together he was horseless for a while but the calling was too great. He rode some in Texas with Jack Magill and Breggemann. When Mike McIntosh established his own business in our honoree's hometown of Indianapolis where he still had family, including his mother and sister, it was the perfect time to get back in and did so with the purchase of Cocktail Dreams. There would be many more, including Great Day

Rising, Texas Sky, Colonel Clarence, Enzo, Bourbon Sky and currently Just Plain George.

Active in different horse shows and organizations, including being a former ASHA board member, he has given back to the sport of showing horses in many ways.
