The Schaffel Family

For decades the American Saddlebred has been the centerpiece of families across the country giving moms, dads and children a chance to share the sport and all that goes with it. This family activity has been a blessing for tonight's honorees.

A horseback ride for their four-year-old daughter while on vacation in Colorado set the stage for what would become the family passion. For her next birthday they promised their daughter they would take her for a riding lesson and a cousin just happened to live next to Ruth Gimpel Stables in Florida. That visit and ride ignited a drive in the young lady that eventually led to several horses for the family.

It was a family friend that led them to another ride at David Chretien's Five Gait Stables in Tampa. From that day on the family has been a part of the Five Gait team. The young lady received her first American Saddlebred, ^{CH}The Perfect Touch, for her 13th birthday. Other stars would follow, including ^{CH}Chantilly Castle, Wrapped In Chocolate, Hello Bombshell, and Courageous Writer.

Dad also got the itch and he too participates in the roadster division. You might know him as the 2015 Amateur Roadster To Bike World's Champion of Champions with Iamnotacow.

Besides showing horses, the family has shared many philanthropic projects. They have also been the gracious hosts of the World's Championship Horse Show Brunch for these past two years.

Our honorees are most appreciative for what showing horses has done for their daughter. "She has gained confidence in herself as a person and as a rider. She has learned empathy and compassion; she has a true appreciation of and love for the animals. She has learned from disappointment and takes losses as a learning opportunity."

The Kentucky Horse Park

Set on more than 1,200 rolling acres in the heart of Kentucky's famous Bluegrass Region, the Kentucky Horse Park features dozens of different breeds of horses at work and at play. The park presents horses in entertaining activities and equine presentations according to the season, including the Breeds Barn and Hall of Champions shows, a Draft Horse Presentation, horse-drawn trolley rides pulled by Draft horses, horseback riding and pony rides, horse farm tours to area farms and more. The International Museum of the Horse, a Smithsonian Affiliate, is dedicated to all breeds of horses and covers more than 50 million years of equine history. The museum includes a permanent collection of the many Thoroughbred racing trophies won by the famous Calumet Farm and is home to 5 out of the 11 still-existing Thoroughbred Triple Crown trophies.

The park is also home to the American Saddlebred Horse Association office and the American Saddlebred Museum & Gift Shop, The Showplace for Saddlebreds, which honors and chronicles the history of Kentucky's first native breed of horse. The museum presents a yearlong exhibition entitled Trainers' Treasures: Gifts from Saddlebred Professionals through December 2016, which consists of items that have been donated to the American Saddlebred Museum over the past 50 years by professional horsemen and women from within the Saddlebred industry.

The Kentucky Horse Park is the home of the National Horse Center, a collection of more than 30 national, state and regional equine organizations headquartered on the grounds. This elite professional equestrian collection truly help to fulfill the Bluegrass region's status as the "Horse Capital of the World." The Kentucky Horse Park's preeminent collection of competition facilities allows the park to host some of the world's most prestigious equine sporting events. Home to the Rolex Kentucky Three-Day Event, where Olympic hopefuls compete, the park hosts approximately 200 horse shows and special events annually, most included in park admission.

The Kentucky Horse Park also sports one of America's finest resort campgrounds, set amidst the rolling hills of the Bluegrass, with 260 paved sites, store, swimming pool and many other amenities.

The park is open daily through November 6, 2016, then Wed. through Sunday through mid-March 2017. More information is available at 800/678-8813 or 859/233-4303, and www.kyhorsepark.com.
