Bob Ruxer

Our final ASHA Member Of The Day for 2016 got his inspiration from the one and only Roy Rogers, whom he saw perform right here in Freedom Hall. A native of Jasper, IN, our honoree was able to cultivate his dreams because his uncle Alvin and aunt Hilda went to a farm auction where a Saddlebred mare was tied up to a manure spreader waiting to be sold. When it came time, Alvin started the bidding on her, which was going back and forth. Little did he know it was Hilda bidding against him on the other side. The family backed one car out of their two-car garage and bedded it with straw for their new mare, Starlane Rose. They then built a little block barn and eventually a show horse and breeding facility that would change the course of history for the American Saddlebred.

They bought a Leatherwood King daughter named Judy O'Lee who would become their foundation broodmare, producing Melody O'Lee. They also purchased the Three-Gaited World's Grand Champion Valley View Supreme and when bred to Melody O'Lee she produced a son who turned out to be the legendary, Supreme Sultan. The family would stand some of the breed's greats. In addition to Valley View Supreme and Supreme Sultan, Mr. Magic Man, Talent Town and Sultan's Royalty resided at Ruxer Farms over the years.

Our honoree first started working for his uncle's car dealership and then went to the University of Kentucky taking pre-med courses but that wasn't for him. Some of his buddies - Jimmy Robertson, Johnny Conatser and Nick McGowin - all went into horse training and he decided that was for him as well. Marty Mueller would be his first teacher.

The young man became a noted trainer, breeder, salesman, author and industry leader, serving both the ASHA and UPHA in many ways. He was instrumental in convincing his peers to adopt the three-judge Majority Opinion System. The family was also played a great role in the establishment of the American Saddlebred Museum where a statue of the great Supreme Sultan still greets visitors at the entrance.

In 1985, he married Laura, a young lady whom he had met at the St. Louis Horse Show. They would have a daughter, Chelsea and as a family they shared their love of the American Saddlebred. A serious medical issue for our honoree changed their focus but their love of the horse and their many friends in the business has never wavered. We are pleased to welcome our great friend and an inspiration to many back to Freedom Hall on this championship night where many products of his family's breeding program have made history.

ASHA Youth Celebrate ASHA's 125th Anniversary

125th Anniversary Challenge to the ASHA Youth Clubs

The ASHA Youth Clubs were given the challenge to raise at least $125 to help fund ASHA Youth Scholarships to commemorate the 125th Anniversary of the American Saddlebred Horse Association. To date $2210 has been raised. Our thanks to Biggins Bridle Bunch who had a trail ride and raised $610, The Rackin' Riders from Taylor Creek Stables who had a bake sale and raised $350, High Caliber Hot Shots who raise $150 selling freeze pops, and Legacy Saddlebreds who raised $1100 selling doughnuts with their Krispy Kreme doughnut golf cart. A big thank you to these clubs for taking the challenge!
