ASHA Member of the Day

Tonight the ASHA would like to recognize a lady who has been a great enthusiast for the American Saddlebred and the people involved in our great sport. A Louisville resident since the early '80s, one day she took a walk in her neighborhood and came upon the Rock Creek Riding Club where she saw her first American Saddlebred. While attending the Kentucky State Fair that year she realized the horses showing here were the same kind as those at Rock Creek and she returned to the local stable to start taking lessons with Renee (Capel) Biggins.

As fate would have it she won her first class but still wasn't riding at a high level causing trainer Rob Byers to say, "You know, these horses drive." She wasn't opposed to switching to the pleasure driving division, especially since she got to wear an array of amazing hats. Partnered with a fancy horse, there was just nothing better than going to the show ring decked out and having the time of her life. Some of her favorite teammates have included By All That's Holy, Son Of War, Ms. Greta Garbo, Irish Cappuccino, Atmosphere, and her latest star, the Chad and Michelle Cole trained reserve world's champion Photo Prince.

While getting so much joy from showing her four-legged friends, our honoree has been compelled to give back anyway she can and a lot of that effort has gone to the place where it all began for her, the Rock Creek Riding Club and Horse

Moe Anson (Kentucky)

Show. Rock Creek's David Mount had this to say about tonight's honoree. "Moe is the rock behind Rock Creek. In her more than 30 years of service to the club, Moe lead the efforts to rebuild the club after a devastating fire and lead the horse show back to prominence as its chair. She is affectionately known as 'Moe Moe' to the kids at Rock Creek where as a surrogate grandmother she is one of their biggest supporters both inside and outside the ring. Moe truly represents the Rock Creek spirit through her generosity and willingness to help others."

DID YOU KNOW?

A Certificate Of Approximate Age of Horse form completed by a licensed veterinarian and current photos must accompany the application for registration when the dam is listed on a stallion's stallion service report for more than one breeding season, and foals resulting from those breedings have not been registered by December 31 of their foaling year.

Remember, the need for this form may be avoided if you register by December 31 of each foaling year.
