Multiple Three-Gaited World's Grand Champion and 2018 Broodmare Hall of Fame inductee CHOur Charming Lady was foaled in 2001. She was bred by LCC Enterprises LLC of Las Vegas, Nevada. From the time Jack and Donna Finch of Greensboro, North Carolina purchased her in early 2007 until her retirement in 2010 CHOur Charming Lady won an amazing 37 classes with trainer Mary Marcum Orr aboard, including world's grand championships in 2008 and 2009, six other world's titles, and the Saddlebred Triple Crown. Though not retired until after her final Ladies Three-Gaited World's Champion of Champions win in August, 2010, the use of modern breeding technology and recipient mares, allowed her to produce two offspring by two different stallions in 2011. In 2012, she again produced two foals by two different stallions including Sedgefield's Mirror Image (by Undulata's Nutcracker), the 2016 Junior Three-Gaited Over 15.2 World's Champion and Junior Three-Gaited Reserve World's Champion of Champions. Unfortunately, there were just four entries in the qualifying class and six are required for the win to count towards BHF status. So, even though CHOur Charming Lady had produced her first world's champion, only his reserve title in the championship counted towards her potential BHF inclusion.

Also in 2016, Sedgefield's Never A Doubt, her son by Undulata's Nutcracker, earned the title Reserve World's Champion Three-Gaited Three-Year-Old. He was one of three 2013 foals of CHOur Charming Lady, all by different sires. In 2014, the classically beautiful bay mare produced two foals sired by two different stallions. In 2017, one of those foals, Sedgefield's Legacy (by Undulata's Nutcracker), was named Reserve World's Champion Fine Harness Three-Year-Old Stallion/Gelding. CHOur Charming Lady still needed one of her offspring to win a world's championship in a class of at least six entries to enter the Broodmare Hall of Fame. In 2018, Sedgefield's Mirror Image proved he could do just that by earning the title Three-Gaited Amateur Over 15.2 World's Champion in a class of eight.

CHOur Charming Lady is by the 1998 Five-Gaited Amateur World's Champion of Champions Santana's Charm, sire of WGC sire WC Sir William Robert, WCC CHAshlyn's Voodoo Charm, WCC CHI'm Something Wicked, WC Amusing, and more. Daughters of Santana's Charm have produced WGC CHMacadamia, WCC CHFort Chiswell's Prince Charming, RWCC Agent Cool Blue, etc. Impeccably bred, the gorgeous Santana's Charm was the first stallion to win the Amateur Five-Gaited World's Champion of Champions title and is still one of only two to do so. Santana's Charm is by WGC sire and Fine Harness WGC Sultan's Santana and out of the good show mare Vanity's Belle by WGC sire Vanity's Sensation Of Crebilly. Three-Gaited WGC CHValley View Supreme also appears on Santana's Charm's pedigree, as does one of the most beautiful walk-trot mares of all time, Three-Gaited WGC CHAmerica Beautiful (BHF).

The dam of CHOur Charming Lady, My Bugatti Royale, is by WC sire RWC Local Hero (a son of WGC sire WGC CHYorktown that is line bred to the game sire of sires Anacacho Denmark). My Bugatti Royale was the 1994 Reserve World's Champion Two-Year-Old Fine Harness Mare under the name Tituba SC, and she is a half sister to 1991 Three-Gaited 15.2 and Under World's Champion and RWGC Mini Griggs. My Bugatti Royale went on to win the 1996 Junior Fine Harness World's Championship. The second dam of CHOur Charming Lady is the beautiful, black, 1980 World's Champion Kentucky Futurity Yearling Bi-Mi Replique. Her third dam, Lady Of Vanity, is by Vanity's Sensation Of Crebilly, giving CHOur Charming Lady two crosses to the famous son of WGC CHMeadow Vanity (BHF).

“She is a superb example of a winning show mare that passes her best traits on to her foals”

CHOur Charming Lady is a full sister to 2008 Five-Gaited Ladies Gelding Division I World's Champion I'm Royalty Too and to WCC sire RWC My Royale Charm. She is a half sister to world's champion sire Jon Bugatti, stakes winner Nubiana and I'm A Bugatti Too (dam of WC Arrowhead's Moet).

With WGC CHYorktown on the bottom of her pedigree and WGC sire Supreme Sultan on the top, CHOur Charming Lady is the epitome of the modern day “golden cross”. Her four generation pedigree lists seven different Hall of Fame broodmares and includes world's grand champions in the five-gaited, three-gaited and fine harness divisions, as well as an in hand world's champion. The owners of CHOur Charming Lady have afforded her every chance to prove herself as a broodmare. At the age of 17, through the use of embryo transfer she now has 18 registered offspring, sired by ten different stallions. However, it is her nick with multiple WGC sire Undulata's Nutcracker that has produced the foals whose wins have propelled her into the Broodmare Hall of Fame. Her three 2018 foals are all sired by Undulata's Nutcracker and look to carry on the family tradition. She is a superb example of a winning show mare that passes her best traits on to her foals.

This grand mare descends from a family of world's champions, is a multiple world's champion herself, and is a producer of world's and reserve world's champions. She joins an elite group of mares including WGC CHAmerica Beautiful (BHF) and WGC CHMeadow Vanity (BHF) from her top side that have earned world's grand champion titles before joining the elusive Broodmare Hall of Fame.
