Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the American Saddlebred Horse and Breeders Association Scholarship Program. The Scholarship Committee congratulates you on your achievements thus far and is pleased that you have requested a scholarship application.

Please read and follow the application procedure carefully and completely. Enclosed are the application, instructions and reference forms. General information about the scholarship is found on the cover page of the application.

The completed application, attached transcripts and tax information are due in the ASHBA office no later than June 1 of the year you wish to receive the scholarship. Letters of reference are due June 15.

The Scholarship Committee will review your application. Recipients of our scholarships demonstrate financial need, a commitment to the American Saddlebred industry, and academic success. Please keep the following Statement of Philosophy in mind as you prepare your application:

The purpose of the American Saddlebred Horse and Breeders Association Scholarship program is to provide scholarships to members of the American Saddlebred Horse and Breeders Association, 21 years of age and under, at grade 11 or higher, who demonstrate financial need, participation in ASHBA Youth Programs, a commitment to the American Saddlebred industry, and academic success.

Scholarships will be awarded only to applicants on the basis of submitted evidence of academic success, financial need, extracurricular activities (including community service), involvement with American Saddlebred horses, and personal references. An interview may also be required.

If selected for an ASHBA scholarship, the scholarship money will be paid directly to the institution, university, college or trade school for post-secondary educational expenses.

Best of luck to you! Each year we eagerly anticipate learning more about the youth of the American Saddlebred industry. You are to be commended for your past accomplishments and we look forward to hearing of great successes in your future!

If you have any questions about the scholarship or the application procedure, please contact Jean Warren at j.warren@saddlebred.com.
